Message from the President

Do you remember why you chose Theta? Remember how all those other groups entertained you, sang songs to you, tried to make you cry, put their arms around you and said how much they liked you? I do. I also remember that the Thetas did entertain us, did sing songs to us, but I don't remember that they made me cry, and I know they never put their arms around me and told me how much they wanted me.

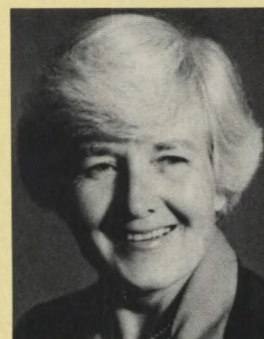

I was scared to death they didn't want me! Yet when it came time to sign the preference card, I only listed Theta. My rush counselor had told us that we should list two or three choices because we could be happy in any one of several Greek groups at DePauw. She was right—you could—but I didn't want to be happy anywhere but in Theta.

My mind was made up even before I left my little hometown of Frankfort. Meeting the collegians in the Theta chapter at DePauw only confirmed what I had known for years. The best looking, most interesting women—the women you wanted most to emulate—were Thetas. As alumnae, are you setting this type of example in your hometown? What are you doing to influence young women today?

Once you pledged Theta and began to learn the history of the Fraternity, you knew that you were wise to have chosen Theta. It was the first Greek letter Fraternity for women. Without Theta, there might never have been women's Greek fraternities as we know them today. Bettie Locke, Alice Allen, Hannah Fitch, and Betty Tipton were pioneers. They went to college at a time when they were supposed to be home learning to hem hankies and cook. You also learned that the upperclass Thetas were leaders on campus and were good role models for you as pledges. I remember becoming involved in several campus activities because of sorority sisters. I would say to myself, "Some day I am going to be like Marilyn on Student Union Board, like Marty, president of Student Senate, like Judy, leader in AWS." As upperclass collegians, what examples are you setting for your pledges? What are you doing to influence younger members of the chapter?

After graduation, why Theta? Most of our alumnae today are working, raising families, volunteering at church, school, and community boards, playing tennis or golf, running marathons and cooking gourmet meals. They are doing so many things it wears us out just to read about them. Why would anyone want to become active in an alumnae chapter or club?

Theta is a wonderful way to make instant friends when you move to a new city, to find a doctor in a

Membership: a lifetime cycle

Membership in Kappa Alpha Theta is more! More than rush. More than pledgeship. More than college years. And more than occasionally attending an alumnae meeting or writing a recommendation. Membership in Kappa Alpha Theta is a total cycle of involvement which lasts a lifetime.

This issue of The Kappa Alpha Theta Magazine features our Fraternity rush directory, reminding us that the continuing cycle of membership is beginning anew. Formal rushes across the continent are selecting new members, and pledge education is beginning to teach these new members the meaning of fraternity. College and alumnae members are renewing their ties to the Fraternity and to each other, and perhaps learning more about the meaning of those ties. Alumnae are realizing that it is again time to write and send recommendations which enable rushees to become pledges. And thus the cycle continues.

Every segment of the cycle is important: the whole is only as strong as its weakest part. Every member is important and her contribution is needed to keep the cycle strong and vital. Every Theta should feel a sense of responsibility for the continuing strength of this cycle. Thetas everywhere need to remember that membership in Kappa Alpha Theta is indeed more!

Rush starts the Theta cycle

On the day that Bettie Locke told her closest friend Alice Allen of her plans for a women's fraternity, Kappa Alpha Theta rush began. One can imagine Bettie describing to Alice her dream of an organization designed to nurture the intellectual, social and moral growth of young women. Alice joined Bettie and together they rushed two more women—Bettie Tipton and Hannah Fitch. In rushing they shared their hopes and dreams for what Kappa Alpha Theta would be. It was a rush from the heart—the essence of what every rush should be.

Rush itself is a whirlwind of open houses, skits, theme days and preference parties. It is the culmination of months of planning. The time for anticipation is over and the time for jubilation is near as the chapter members work toward their common goals.

Every chapter's rush should impart a sense of pride in the Fraternity. Theta collegians should exemplify the bonds of sisterhood through unified efforts so that each rushee leaves a Theta party feeling happy to have been there. In selecting the best pledge class possible each Theta chapter is selecting those in whose hands they will place the become a member of Kappa Alpha Theta? There were the mixed emotions, the excitement, the apprehension and the question you kept asking yourself—"What have I gotten myself into this time?"

In a very short time, young women on college campuses across the United States and Canada will participate in rush. They too will ask themselves that same question. It is the responsibility of Theta members to live up to the expectations of their pledge classes. Thetas must be all they said they were throughout rush. Bid day is just the beginning. It is up to Thetas to fulfill their promises of support,

Did you know . . .

- Some campuses have as many as 1500 rushees each year?
- Some chapters have twice as many legacies going through rush as their pledge quota?
- A good recommendation is a rush tool, not a "permission to pledge"?
- Rush dates, rules and quotes are set by individual campus Panhellenic?
- Some Panhellenics do not close rush registration until rush actually begins?
- Rush recommendation boards in metropolitan areas need more than a name and address to locate a rushee?
- Some chapters begin rush with few recommendations and must choose as many as 30 new Thetas only on the basis of brief rush parties?
- Some alumnae rush personnel receive as many as 100 requests for recommendations during a single rush week?
- Some chapters' rush phone bills are nearly as high as their social budgets?
- Most information about alumnae rush is in the Rush Recommendation Board Manual?
- Membership manuals and other sources of information are available from Central Office?

The alumnae connection makes the difference

Rush at Sigma Sigma Chapter is always hectic. Panhellenic lists are released late so that rushees are not identified until a few days before the first round of parties. Estimating the needs for refreshments and name tags is just guesswork. Because information on the rushees is limited, advance planning is difficult. The chapter is nervous! It is difficult to concentrate on skits and song practice. The more reticent of the members feel terrified at the thought of talking to so many strangers. Thoughtful members are concerned at again having to choose their sisters—and future members of the chapter—on the basis of superficial party acquaintance. Once rush actually begins there are long sessions of membership selection as members search for guidance in their choices. Alumnae are pressed into service at the last minute to supplement refreshments and frantic telephoning for information and recommendations from harried alumnae rush personnel goes on at all hours. When rush is finally over the rush chairman and rush adviser sigh with relief and feel grateful that they won't have to face the experience again for another year.

Rush at Theta Theta chapter is wonderful. Despite the fact that the campus Panhellenic allows rush registration to continue until a few days before the first parties, the chapter has been able to do much needed advance planning. Chapter members have worked hard with their alumnae at home to identify and gather information on likely rushees for their campus, and a list of top prospects has been prepared. Time has been spent learning about these rushees and plenty of food, name-tags and other props are on hand. Confidence abounds! Members know the interests and talents of many of the rushees and so are able to concentrate on perfecting super skits and songs. This allows them to relax and make the rushees feel at home. Chapter members know their selection of new sisters will be based on a deeper knowledge than they can obtain at a party. Membership selection goes smoothly. There are rushees for whom information must be sought, but each early recommendation has reduced the number of calls that must be made. Each year rush is another positive experience for Theta Theta chapter and its leaders!

Your recommendation can help turn a Sigma Sigma rush into Theta Theta rush! The time spent by alumnae searching through hometown contacts for potential rushees for any of our 108 college chapters is time spent strengthening our Fraternity.

Once you have identified potential rushees, introduce them to the Theta chapter on their college campus by sending a complete, concise, honest recommendation form. Work through your local rush recommendation board or authorized rush representative where they exist. (See the list on page 14 of this issue.) Use all the spaces provided on the recommendation forms to give useful information to the college chapter.

Identifying potential rushees and writing recommendations for outstanding young friends is a labor of love. It is a rewarding experience if she pledges Theta and, if she chooses another group, can provide you with a good feeling because you know you have added to her pleasant rushing experience. Either way, you have helped transform rush for a Theta chapter by providing an important rushing tool—an early recommendation.

Legacies: a call for cooperation

The question of how to identify and rush young women who have special ties to our Fraternity is one which calls for extra thought and care on the part of everyone involved.

Our Fraternity has a long-standing policy regarding treatment of legacies:

A legacy is a daughter, sister or granddaughter of a member of Kappa Alpha Theta. Legacies shall receive special attention and shall be placed to the best advantage during rush. All other qualifications being equal, a legacy shall receive first consideration.

The Kappa Alpha Theta Rush and Membership Selection Manual spells out this policy in more detail. The Kappa Alpha Theta Membership Committee further states that it is important for all legacies to be identified, recommended, rushed and given every consideration. It is not expected that every legacy will be pledged, but chapters are encouraged to take seriously the dropping of any legacy. Theta ties are weakened whenever a legacy is not pledged.

These objective policies involve much more than words. They point toward emotional situations and call for subjective actions on the part of everyone involved—alumnae, college chapter members and legacy relatives.

Alumnae should feel a special responsibility to identify legacies from their area and introduce them to Theta chapters on the campuses where the legacies will be attending college. Extra efforts must be made to insure that full information is given to collegians regarding these rushees who already have close ties to our Fraternity. No legacy, regardless of the degree of Theta involvement of her relative, should be a surprise to a Theta chapter when she appears and announces her tie to Theta.

However, alumnae must remember that it is no longer possible to expect an automatic place in the chapter for every Theta legacy.

Many chapters now have more legacies going through rush than places in their pledge classes. Alumnae should also keep in mind that different types of girls will fit into chapters in various parts of the country at various times. This rich diversity is one of the strengths of our college chapters. It is important to remember that a legacy who is pledged only because of alumnae pressure could turn out to be very unhappy in a chapter where she does not feel comfortable.

Collegians should also feel a special responsibility for legacies in rush. Usually legacies are young women who are already aware of the responsibilities that come with Theta membership. This awareness, along with the deeper sense of relationship to the Fraternity which has grown from family ties, gives the Theta legacy a head start on the development of those attributes which make strong chapter members.

While collegians should work hard in rushing our legacies, they should also be careful not to apply standards to the legacies which they would not apply to other rushees. Legacies may be confused about the effect their Theta ties will have on their overall rush, and anxious about hurting their family because of rush decisions. These feelings call for extra care and patience on the part of chapter members.

Theta relatives of rushees have responsibilities also. They need to be sure their sisters, daughters or granddaughters are identified—both to hometown alumnae rush personnel and to Theta chapters. They must “rush Greek” not just Theta. Their own possible biases should be put aside so they can help their relative make her choice with an open mind. One aspect of legacy rush which is often overlooked is that despite the very best rush possible by a Theta chapter, there will be Theta legacies who choose other groups. All Thetas should be able to wish them well in their choices despite any feelings of disappointment.

In this day of increasing numbers of Theta legacies there is no easy solution to the challenge of rushing them. Only if everyone involved approaches the issue with love and careful thought can we hope to work through the issue. Working together we can support each other as well as our legacies in the final choices made.

strange town, to find the best schools for your children. It is one of the few groups in which you find women of all ages—women who are willing to share their experience and knowledge for no other reason than that they are sisters. The Theta Career Connection is relatively new, but there has been an “old girl network” in Theta for a long time. Thetas introduced me to several opportunities I probably would not have had without them. I still find that when I meet a woman I admire, one who is doing something exciting that I would like to do, more often than not she is a Theta. What are you doing to help young Thetas find jobs or become involved in community organizations?

Why Theta now? When life is so busy and fast that we are re-evaluating every activity to determine whether or not it is “meaningful time,” why Theta? Because Theta is meaningful time of the highest order. Do you want a stake in the future of the country? Do you want to influence some young woman who may in turn influence the world? Do you want to associate with a group of women who have the highest standards and expectations? Do you want to be challenged to be the best you can be? Do you want to be supported in your efforts to develop your own best self?

One of the most significant factors in today's world is the breakdown of the family and the resulting sense of isolation. We need to care and be cared for. We need to feel acceptance regardless of the mistakes we make. We need to be encouraged to look for the lessons in these mistakes and to be challenged to continue our search for excellence. We need to pay back what we have gained from Theta in the way of personal challenge and friendship.

Why Theta? Because she needs you and you need her. Say “yes” to Theta today!

Foundation Fund donor list grows

The Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation is the philanthropic arm of the Fraternity. Contributions from thousands of Thetas throughout the country enable the Foundation to fund scholarships and fellowships, make Community Involvement Project grants, provide a segment of the leadership training offered to collegiate members and support the Institute of Logopedics. Thank you for making the educational and charitable aspirations of the Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation possible.
